He was born September 8, 1930 in Edgecombe County, NC. He was the son of the late Cullen Phillips and the late Carrie Bullock Phillips. Of that union ten children were born, and eight of which have preceded John in death. He was also preceded in death by two of his sons: John, Jr. and Curtis Knight.

After he retired from driving trucks, he became a custodian at Abbott Lab in Rocky Mount, NC. He retired from there after fifteen years of service. He didn't stop there, he then joined The Royal Maintenance Company and cleaned different office buildings until his health began to fail him.

Big John loved singing about the Lord and sang with several different gospel groups. His last singing group was "Big John and The Cross Jordan Singers". They sang together for twenty four years and made several CD's. Their last reunion was on December 4, 2011.

John was a good husband, father, grandfather, and sweet brother. He took his illness patiently and of good courage. He fought the good fight of faith! His favorite words while going through his illness was, "Fix It", "Is it straight", and "Thank you Jesus!" His favorite scripture was the twenty third Psalm.
