“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times

“ My inherited brother.

If they ever look up the expression "Still waters run deep" they will find your picture next to that definition. A man of few words, but when they were uttered they were always in a thoughtful way full of insightful wisdom and humor.

Although you spoke quietly, your actions were strong and powerful, like the time you literally risked life and limb to save your mother from the flood.

Walter Junior, you are loved and will be missed.

Respectfully,

Don Hayes II

“ You always took me to the best barbecue places. Janice and I had an awesome time a few weeks ago when we came to see you. We loved the 'short' hour and a half ride to Greenville for the best barbecue we've had in a while. I know you and Janice were quite entertained watching me take the first couple bites of what you called 'dirty barbecue '. Laugh on brother because it was goood to me! I will miss you and our 2, 3 hour long phone conversations.

Treasured in my heart you're stay, until we meet again one day.

Love you baby brother.
