

Antwan Evans Smallwood Jr.

August 29, 2012 - January 23, 2014

Antwan Smallwood, Jr. born on Wednesday, August, 29, 2012, at Nash General Hospital, was seventeen months old, living in Rocky Mount, NC. He was the son of Monique Morgan of Rocky Mount, NC and Antwan Smallwood of Ahoskie, NC.

He is survived by: six sisters: Traci White of Chesapeake, VA; Tiyonna Horton Winton, NC; Kamari Smallwood Suffolk, VA; Amina Smallwood Lewiston, NC; Ton'Netta Vines Rocky Mount, NC; and Laila Smallwood Lewiston, NC; two brothers, Tony Vines III Rocky Mount, NC; and Ryan Saunders Lewiston, NC; his grandparents, Sam Morgan and Claudia Battle Rocky Mount, NC; Sherry Smallwood Winton, NC; and Tony Smallwood Ahoskie, NC; his great grandparents, Jerleen Combo, Eva Mae Bishop, and Walter Bishop all of Ahoskie, NC; seven uncles; two aunts; and a host of other family members. Antwan was your average young boy who loved to play hard. He liked hide and seek, going for long bike rides, and video games. He learned to walk at eight months old and got into everything after that. Walking led to climbing, and that was something else all together. Antwan loved to climb and wasn't afraid. Once on top of whatever it was he was climbing, he would just jump off. He jumped off everything from beds, tables, and chairs. Antwan even climbed the outside of the crib.

Aside from that, Antwan had a thing for cell phones. He loved anything electronic. He learned to operate touch screens and push buttons on anything he could reach. He would constantly change the channels on the television and think it was funny. Antwan was high in energy and always doing something.

Antwan touched many lives and many people love him dearly. He will be missed in a way that words can't express. Many hearts now have a void, but find relief in knowing that Antwan is in a better place and we will all see him again some day.
