

Mrs Carrie Williams Richardson

February 6, 1955 - July 6, 2015

Carrie "Hope" Williams Richardson, was born on February 6, 1955 to the late Willie and Carrie E. Williams. She surrendered her life to be with the Lord after a 6 year battle with kidney failure, on July 6, 2015 at Vidant Hospital.

Carrie was educated in the public schools of Nash County. In 1973, she graduated from Rocky Mount Senior High. After which she served on the Rocky Mount Police force for 10 years. Carrie was a active member of the Emanuel FWB Church, until her health began to fail. She was a loving person, anyone who she could help she would.

Carrie was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Robert Richardson, two brothers: Charles Killerbrew and Russell Williams, two sisters: Eula Bryant Mavis Clark, and Vernell Bullock.

"Hope" leaves to cherish her memory: three sons: Derick Williams, Sr of Detroit, MI, Kevin Williams, Sr (Kimberly) , and Domonick Williams(Bethany). Two daughters: Rahcelle Richardson (James Wiggins), and Bernadette Richardson (Jarriet Battle) all of Rocky Mount, NC. Sixteen grandchildren: Jasmine, Sierra, Justina, Derick Jr, Kevin Jr, Robert, Jeremiah, Nysheka, Jayden, Jamiera, Jordan, TorFreda, Braelynn, Karee, Makayla, and DeAndre. Eight siblings: Nancy Able(Lafrance), Sherl Thompson(Cleveland), Lizzie Hinton, Fannie Lloyd, Dorothy Lee, Linberg Gray, Robert Wardrette, Willie Ann Williams and Muriel Williams. Raised like her own; Glenn Walker, Jonathon Hill, Janice Brinkley, Lovie Morgan, and Taheisha Braswell. A special friend Glenn Ford. A host of nieces, nephews, family members and friends.
