“ The Hemby Family thoughts and prayers go forward to the family of Charity Mae Spragg as you celebrate her life and legacy. May her love, strength and endurance bring you comfort as you reflect on her life. These are memories that will be shared when you come together and see something or say something that reminds you of what she did, what she said or just how she said it. Each day the sorrow and grief will become less and the memories will keep her close to you.
