

Dorothy Mae "Dot" Jenkins

February 3, 2012

Dorothy Mae Jenkins "Dot", passed away in a quiet atmosphere surrounded by the people she loved on February 3, 2012.

She was born in Tarboro, North Carolina on May 6, 1956 to Eddie and Odell Jenkins.

She was preceded in death by: her father, Eddie Jenkins; Two brothers, Raymond Lewis and Matthew Jenkins; Two nephews: Stanley Jenkins and Larry Christian Hill; One granddaughter; Whitney Hinnant; Son-in-law, Lawrence E. Seaborne, Jr.; Three aunts: Mattie Carr, Josephine Jenkins and Lillian McNair; Seven uncles: Willie Aaron, and Percy Jenkins, Jim, Dave, Charlie, Raymond and Marcella Harrison

Dot graduated from Menchville High School, Class of 1975, in Newport News, Virginia. Later Dot moved to Rocky Mount, North Carolina where she became gainfully employed, got married and raised a family, and dedicated her life to Jehovah.

Dot loved people and she was very appreciative for all acts of kindness she received. She was a pillar of strength and graciously fought her battle with cancer with her mind focused intently on the resurrection hope. She continued to witness about Jehovah and the Kingdom to many who visited her.

This paper is too small to say all the wonderful things we know and loved about Dot. We all will miss her radiant smile for just a little while.

She is survived by her husband, Don Hobbs; Mother: Odell Jenkins; Two sons: Jamey Lamont Wilkins and William Wheless; Four grandchildren: Jamie Wilkins, Shakira Barrett, Laquan Harbey, and Nikita Harbey; Two brothers: James Lewis and Earnest Lee Jenkins; Six sisters: Gidget Seaborne, Josephine J. Bridgers (Calvin), Diane Whitaker (Clayton), Geraldine Jenkins, Maggie Jenkins and Lillian Jenkins; Four uncles: Percy Harrison, Joseph Harrison, Frank Jenkins (Blanche) and Eleigh Jenkins; and a special adopted daughter: Shirita Barrett; Also, Dot had a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives.
