

Mrs. Helen Battle

April 12, 1945 - January 30, 2022

Helen Louise Battle, daughter of the late Henry Louis Chisel, and Helen Beatrice Gray, raised by Lennie Roberson, was born April 12, 1945 and entered into her eternal rest on Sunday, January 30, 2022. She is preceded in death by her husband Jessie Battle, one son, Jerlendious Douglas Gray, three brothers, James Douglas Gray, Alfonso Sumler and Edward Sumler, one sister Brenda Faison, and one grandson Dorian Battle.

Helen Louise Battle started her career in the textile industry where she was employed at Shirt Factory Wilson, NC, Stony Creek Knitting Mills Rocky Mount, NC and Elm City Sewing Company as a Supervisor. She later opened a restaurant with her husband named "Twin Palms." Later went on to open her retail store in Tarry Town Mall named "Helen's Odd Things". Helen loved perfecting her crafts and selling her porcelain dolls, figurines, and many different arts and crafts that she set her mind to.

Helen Louise Battle was a woman with the humblest spirit and one to tell it like it is. She loved her family and friends, but most of all she loved her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She enjoyed family gatherings, watching her grandchildren and great-grandchildren play, come together and just loved making sure they were taken care of. She supported everyone that she could but always provided a word of wisdom while doing so. Her love for everyone was meaningful and it was the little things that made her proud and happy. Helen was well known in her community and left a great impact on her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, family, and friends.

She leaves to cherish and celebrate her life, her beloved son Anthony “Tony” Gray Rocky Mount, North Carolina; step-sons, Alvin (Annette) Battle of Archdale, North Carolina; and Jessie (Phyllis) Battle of Pinetops, North Carolina; step-daughters, Audrey Battle of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; and Latoya Merritt of Virginia Beach, Virginia; sisters Beverly Harris, and Loraine “Poochie” Roberson of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; Pauline Chisel, and Mary Ann Williams of Sharpsburg, North Carolina; Janice Jones, Emma “Lil Bit” Wells, and Metega “Duke” Chisel of Wilson, North Carolina; brothers, Robert Earl Chisel of Rocky Mount, North Carolina ; and Henry Donell Chisel of Wilson, North Carolina; thirteen grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
