

Mr. Henry Walker Jr.

March 3, 1959 - September 23, 2013

Mr. Henry Walker, Jr. was born March 2, 1950 to Henry Walker, Sr. and the late Verna Lee Anthony– Walker. After two years of declining health, he departed this life on Monday, September 23, 2013, 3:00am at Nash General Hospital.

He was the second born child with nine siblings who loved him and cared for him in all his life's ups and downs.

He attended Rocky Mount City schools and later commuted to work with his father who trained him in concrete construction. He later relocated to Washington, DC. Henry worked for many years for Burton and Robinson Construction and later returned to his home town to live.

Henry resided at 726 Myrtle Avenue, Rocky Mount, NC alone until his illness. Ms. Marie Cotton, his long time friend moved in to assist him in his hour of need.

While hospitalized in Nash General Hospital, his natural life slowly slipped away but, he made the greatest choice of his life by accepting Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. Henry let go of his carnal life and made a holy exchange for eternal life. He now stands in the presence of the Most High God forever more. Though we shall miss him, his life has just begun.

He leaves to cherish his memories; his father, Henry Walker, Sr.; his step mother, Ollie Walker of Elm City, NC; brothers: Carl D. Walker of Spring Hope, NC, and Terry Walker, Sr.; sisters: Helen Walker, Minnie Walker, Gloria Walker, Annette Haywood, Linda Lewis, Brenda Garrett all of Rocky Mount, NC, and Pamela Staton of Spring Hope, NC; brother-in-laws: Marvin Lewis, Marvin Garrett, Sr., and Earl Haywood, sister-in-laws: Gwendolyn Battle-Walker, Sonya Howell-Walker.
