I remember Mr. Ivory very fondly when I worked at RMSH as a teacher. He used to help resolve conflicts among the students, and that made our lives as teachers a lot easier in my opinion. I remember him as being a very nice man and easy to work with. He will be missed.

“ I’m sorry to hear of your passing my friend. We worked at Edwards Middle School together. I always think of the fun and fussing with the kids. Giving them life lessons every day. You will be missed.

“ I still have my “Herman Ivory chair” that I borrowed from his office at the old school so I could do hall duty during exams! Anytime I’d go in his office after that, he would count the chairs and say “hmmmm.... I seem to be missing a chair.... you know anything about that??” 🤔 What a sweet man. I know he will be missed.

Herman Ivory or just plain “Ivory”...a giant of a man, physically and with his impact with everyone at RMHS. He was gentle when he needed to be and tough when he had to be, but always a best advocate for all students where he served. I really enjoyed working with Ivory when it was easy and when the going was tough. To his family...lean on your faith, your family and your friends during this time.
