“ Well Jeff, what do I say to best man that came into my Aunt's life twelve years ago, you are definitely going to be missed in our family. Also to your son, brother, and the rest of family I pray God gives you all strength. Just know there's no problem God can't solve, no promise God can't keep, and no pain God can't comfort!

“ You gave me warmth and tenderness, you filled my heart with pride, you gave me trust and friendship, and you took my faults in stride, you added such love and meaning to everything we do, you gave me so much happiness, that all I needed was you.

God give me the strength to face it, and courage to bear the blow.
But what it means to lose you, no one but God will know.

I love you Jeffrey Jones,
Your sweetheart "Susan"
