

Phillip Eugene Nelson

December 19, 1956 - February 16, 2013

Phillip Eugene Nelson, son of the late Walter P. Nelson, was born in Edgecombe County, on December 19, 1953. He departed this life on February 16, 2013.

Phillip Nelson attended Public School in Edgecombe County. He later landed a job as a contractor/construction worker. He was a very hard worker and loved to utilize his skills repairing and building things. He loved to take his family traveling and would spend his quality time by telling jokes. His dance routines were unforgettable and would have everyone crying from laughter. He was a man of many strengths as well as talents, that will greatly be missed.

He was preceded in death by: maternal grandparents, the late Rev. Essie Powell, Sr. and Violet Powell; paternal grandparents, Mr. Paul and Olive Nelson; and one daughter, Brenda Draughn.

He leaves to cherish his memories; his wife, Alice Nelson; mother, Annie Nelson; one son, Cody Draughn; two daughters, Anita Draughn Wilkins and Denise Draughn; two sisters, Arletha Nelson and Barbara Knight all of Rocky Mount, NC; two brothers, Kelvin Nelson (Anita) and Melvin Powell of Enfield, NC; nine grandchildren; two great grandchildren; and a host of relatives and friends.
