“ To the world greatest mother when I think about how bless I was to have known her through the years. WE had a unstanding that only God can give she was one of a kind. I feel good to be able to say these words about such a sweet person she was always willing to give her best. She was a laborer for the Lord she loved her family and she had a big family because everyone that came in touch with her was her family. She will be miss but known she is with the Lord give me the most happy feeling the lord called another one of his soldier home no more pains and sorrows down here she gone home to be with her savior.
