

Scott Lamont Ragland Jr.

January 28, 2013

Scott Ragland, Jr. also known as "LS" was 25 years of age. Scott resided between Brooksville, FL, Harlem, NY, and Rocky Mount, NC which was his last known residence. Scott passed away on January 28, 2013 in Rocky Mount, NC.

Scott Ragland, Jr. was born in St. Luke's Roosevelt Hospital in New York, NY to parents, Scott Ragland, Sr. (deceased) and Omeka Lemons, on June 16, 1987. Scott attended Cypress Creek Academy in Lecanto, FL and obtained his High School diploma. He then attended Schenectady County Community College in Schenectady, NY for a couple of years. Scott attended Revealing Truth Ministries, where he was baptized. Scott held many jobs, such as installing cable for Bright House, a cook at Chili's, and Tattoo Artist, to name a few. Scott was a free spirit and loved to always be somewhere doing something and interacting with all sorts of people. He made friends wherever he went. Scott loved to party. In fact, he was coined the nick name, "Scotty too Hottie" because he was always down to party. Scott also enjoyed all sports but his main sport of interest was basketball. Most kids wanted to be the next Michael Jordan or LeBron James, but all Scott wanted to be was as good as his dad.

Scott leaves behind: his mother, Omeka Lemons; girlfriend, Sharay Guy; one son, Myles Lee (2yrs.); one daughter, Soraya Lissette Ragland (4mths.); two sisters, Ashanti Ragland and Ayanna Billington; three brothers, Tirek Ragland, Jason Thomas, and Kristian Ragland; grandmother, Diane Lemons; grandfather, Samuel Ragland; god-parents, Roshawn Boyce and Fitz Boyce; god sister, Amani Boyce; four aunts, Yolanda Lemons, Fatima Lemons, Vivian Carter, and Andrea Carter; two uncles, Doren Lemons and Frank Watson; and a host of cousins and extended family.
