

Mrs Tawanna Davis Scott

November 21, 1972 - February 20, 2021

An Angel is considered to be an angelic being, a guide of many, and a protector. Those that knew Tawanna, knew she was truly an Angel, and carried all of the traits of an Angel. She was a selfless individual, she was caring, and truly a giving person. Tawanna Felicia Davis Scott was born in Nash County, on November 21, 1972, to her mother, Evelyn Davis, and her late father, Arzander Davis. Tawanna departed this earthly life on February 20, 2021 at Nash General Hospital in Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

Tawanna attended and graduated from Northern Nash High School in 1991. She graduated from North Carolina State University, with her Social Work Degree. She graduated from North Carolina Wesleyan College, with her Psychology Degree. She graduated from North Central University, with her Masters Degree in Psychology.

Tawanna has touched a great deal lives, especially in her work force. She was a former, Child Protective Service Social Worker, of Edgecombe County, from November 2000 until December 2009. She was a former, Mobile Crisis Worker at Integrated Family Services PLLC. She was a former, Social Worker for Edgecombe County Health Department, from February 2013 until 2019. Tawanna loved helping children, and her career path lead her as an Intake Service Coordinator at Children's Developmental Services Agency, she started there in October 2019, and this is where her heart was until she departed.

Tawanna gave her life to Christ in 2004, joining Seek His Face Ministry, of Rocky Mount, North Carolina. She quickly did what she does best, show up and show out for the cause, and this cause was solely for God. Dancing was in her spirit, so she put it to a much better cause, dancing for the Lord. She joined the Ministry of Dance. Even though she worked with children 5 days a week, it was her calling, and she answered the call any and every where she was, and at church she served as a Youth Director. She wore many hats and made sure she put her time in, in as many places as she possibly could, therefore she ushered as well. Tawanna was a firm believer of God first and then Family, and that is how she lived.

Preceding her in death, and welcoming her home; her father, Arzander Davis; her sister, Cynthia Denise Kee, her Grandmother, Viola Kee, and her Stepson, Na-Zea Scott.

Tawanna Davis Scott leaves to Carry on her legacy, and to cherish her memory: her husband, Timothy Scott, of the home, her son, Rashawn Elliot, of the home, her son, Joshua Scott of the home, nephew, Ramon Battle, of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; Mother Evelyn Davis, of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; Stepdaughter, Tamiqa Lawrence (Husband Herbert) of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; Stepdaughter, Shakeema Edmondson of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; Stepson, Delvon Edmondson, of Greenville, North Carolina; Step Grandson, King Lawrence, of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; Godson, Malkam Carr of North Charleston, South Carolina; Godson, Tomar Thornton II, of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; a host of cousins and a host of loving and caring friends.

To know Tawanna, is to know and understand the meaning of an Angel. Tawanna enjoyed life, she was a devoted wife, a loving and caring mother and daughter, she loved her family, she wanted to make everyone smile. Tawanna wore her heart on her sleeve, and gave to anyone in need. She never met a stranger. She wanted to help any and every one she came in contact with, that could possibly need her help. In her eyes, there wasn't a problem she could not fix. Tawanna Davis Scott you were our Angel, and We Love You.
